BIOGRAPHY

Ryan was born and raised in Vancouver, Canada. In 1999 he directed his first short film “The Last Good War,” which received a Student Emmy for Best Dramatic Film at the 1999 Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences College Awards. The film also received the Jimmy Stewart Crystal Heart Memorial Award at the Heartland Film Festival that same year. His feature film debut came in 2003 with “Saints and Soldiers,” in which he took on the dual roles of Director and Cinematographer. The film went on to win Best Picture at over fourteen film festivals and was nominated for two Independent Spirit Awards in 2005. His feature “Forever Strong” was released in theatres September of 2008. He has freshly wrapped from directing “Dragon Fire” starring Danny Glover.
